FOR THE BENEFIT OF WCH'S PROJECT: GIVE LOVE TO ABATEX

LIFE IN THE DUMPSITE

GIVE LOVE TO ABATEX

Abatex is a dumpsite community located in Montalban, Rizal Philippines where about 100 families are squatting for more than a decade. The community's source of income is mainly filtering the garbage for recyclable materials. Sadly, even children from age 2 to 12 years old are exposed to this kind of work and are compelled to help their parents due to poverty.

We Care for Humanity officially adopted Abatex as one of its beneficiaries. Once or twice a year, WCH visits this community to help transform their surrounding into a more livable, comfortable and sustainable community. There are about 100 children that are out of school, 75% percent of the parents are out of jobs and 60% of the community are children who are exposed to dirt and germs everyday.

The stench is unbearable and the poverty is even agonizing but the faith of the Abatex people is truly remarkable. In the midst of their excruciating situation, they first asked for a church to house their loyalty to God.

GLOBAL OFFICIALS OF DIGNITY AWARDS

TATYANA PETER is a legend and multi-awarded Celebrity Couturier.

It all started with a dream conceived miles away in a small town of Mount Elbrus in the region of Caucasus and realized in America. A dream to create couture for every woman, inspired by the ladies for whom the dresses are designed.

With devotion, hard work and fashionable flair, Tatyana Peter has made this dream a reality. In business since she was born, Tatyana's whole life has been dedicated to fashion. Her affinity for elegant, classic yet cutting-edge style has carried her designs across international borders, into royal castles, on red carpets, to presidential inaugurations, to the Emmys, the Oscars, onto television shows, and into the movies

Teaming-up with Maria Amor for the Global Officials of Dignity Awards (G.O.D Awards), together they will show the world Tatyana's newest collection, "Light Of Eve".

A FEW OF G.O.D AWARDEES...

BOBBIE SHAW CHANCE

Female Lifetime Achievement Award

BOBBIE SHAW CHANCE, aka "ACTING COACH TO THE STARS" by "E" ENTERTAINMENT. American International always cast plenty of female pulchritude in the beach party films, but one of the most beautiful actresses to work at AIP is Bobbi Shaw. She made just a few films during her all-too-brief film career; Shaw is a fixture in the final four AIP beach party films, including Pajama Party (1964), Beach Blanket Bingo (1965), How to Stuff a Wild Bikini (1965) and The Ghost in the Invisible Bikini (1966), along with a handful of other AIP releases. Shaw was often teamed with comedian Buster Keaton, particularly in Pajama Party (1964) and How to Stuff a Wild Bikini (1965). Keaton was originally cast in The Ghost in the Invisible Bikini (1966), but he was suffering from lung cancer, so comedian Benny Rubin filled in, instead. After the release of The Ghost in the Invisible Bikini (1966) in 1966, Shaw retired from the screen. Bobbi Shaw is now a respected acting coach and goes by the name, Bobbie Shaw-Chance. Some of her pupils include skater-turned-actor Steven Cousins, as well as up-and-coming actors Heather Elizabeth Regan and Robert Kusserow.

JEFFREY R. GUND

Hollywood Power Mover Award

Jeffrey R. Gund is the CEO & Founder of INFOLIST.com an Entertainment Industry information on Jobs, Opportunities, and Events.

Jeffrey is also an award winning composer and sound designer with over a decade of experience working on high profile projects including award winning films, hundreds of episodes of primetime television, and top selling video games with companies such as Paramount, Disney, Fox, New Line, and Orion Pictures, and has written and produced songs for Grammy nominated recording artists.

G.O.D Awards is honoring individuals who have outstanding civic and charitable stewardship and have significantly improved the quality of life in their communities through their expertise, talents and skills in the fields of Business, Philanthropy, Music, Fashion and Entertainment.*
